

Educators' Agreements

The Abdominal Therapy Collective, Inc. (ATC) will consider educators who have completed training as a teacher in abdominal therapy as founded upon the teachings of Dr. Rosita Arvigo.

Presently, ATC, Inc. is contracting only with educators who are teaching abdominal therapy exclusively for ATC, Inc. If you have other contractual obligations, we are available to discuss the particulars of your situation.

In order to become an educator with the ATC, Inc., you must complete the following steps:

- ⦿ Agree in writing to abide by ATC, Inc.'s Code of Conduct, Educators' Equity Pledge and Cultural Acknowledgement Statement.
- ⦿ Pay via Paypal $150 USD.

On successful application as an ATC Educator, ATC will:

- ⦿ Provide you with branded marketing and promotional materials to help boost attendance at your classes.
- ⦿ Promote your classes on our website.
- ⦿ Listen to your needs and questions and answer them as best we can.
- ⦿ Assist you in designing your classes within the ATC's core curriculum.
- ⦿ Help you create a teaching pathway that best suits you and your community.
- ⦿ Regularly update you on our income and expenditures.

As a teacher, you will:

- ⦿ Teach a minimum of 18 hours annually.
- ⦿ Organize and promote your own classes.
- ⦿ Secure locations for your classes.
- ⦿ Provide supplemental materials for your classes.
- ⦿ Collect student payments.

- ⦿ Establish a tithe to the ATC, Inc. as set out below, within 5 business days after the class has concluded.
- ⦿ Decide whether your classes should be held online, in-person, or a combination of both.
- ⦿ Develop a teaching schedule that meets and is most appropriate for your students' needs.
- ⦿ Set a tuition rate based on the economics of your region with approval from ATC, Inc.
- ⦿ Provide your class rosters to the ATC, Inc., including student contact information and financial reports within 5 business days after the class has concluded.

Tithing

You will send to the ATC a 10% tithe of the gross tuition which you collect upon completion of any The Basics Series Classes. Of that amount, half will be used for the Ix Chel Tropical Research Foundation and Dr. Rosita Arvigo, and half will be used for administration fees for the ATC.

CEU/CDP's

At this time ATC, Inc is not issuing CEU/CPD's for its classes.

All these requirements are subject to change by ATC, Inc., without notice.
